ADDITIONAL SUGGESTED CHANGES TO TERMS OF REFERENCE, NIE 11-9-54,
"SOVIET AIR DEFENSE CAPABILITIES, 1954-1960"
(Draft for Board consideration)

- Page 1. Under "Scope", first line, change "should be" to "is to be largely".
- " 2. Under II, change "C" to read: "What is the organization and composition of civilian and non-civilian groups contributing to Soviet air defense through passive defense activities? What are their functions?"
- " 5. (a) Change "VI" to "VIII", and "VII" to "IX".
 (b) Under "VIII, B", third line, after "areas" insert clause "against Western aircraft and under various attack conditions and scales of attack".
- " 6. (a) Add after Appendix D:
- "Appendix E: Graphic description of AA range capabilities.
 Appendix F: Graphic description of "kill expectancy" of Soviet air defense against major Western aircraft under varying weather conditions.
 Appendix G: Graphic description of over-all Soviet air defense capabilities (in general terms: good, fair, poor) in major defense areas against major types of Western aircraft under various attack conditions and scales of attack."
- (b) Change "Appendix E" to "Appendix "H".

NOTE: A coordinated and detailed Air Force and Naval document entitled "The Soviet Bloc Air Defense System" (AIS 2-20/1, 15 March 1954) covers most of the questions which will be raised in writing this paper. The Air and Naval services can thus greatly lighten their workload by merely referring in their contributions to pertinent sections of this document whenever feasible.
